TO MAKE AIRSHIP INVISIBLE

Inventors at Work on Project That Would Seem to Present Some Difficulties.

The newest idea in the construction of aeroplanes, especially for use in war time, is to render them as nearly transparent as possible. To this end studies are now being made of cellulolds and other materials which might possibly be utilized as wings, and which would be sufficiently trans-aeropianes transparent is to prevent them from being seen by the enemy, it would have an added advantage in permitting the avlator to see in all directions, and thus render his air of uninflammable celluloid and are almost invisible when a few hundred feet in the air.

A new muffling box has also been devised which serves to still further deaden the sound and thus enables the operator to get close to the enemy without his presence being detected. The substitution of the specially prenared collulate for the canvas pected to mark a distinct advance in acroplano manufacture, although it is as yet too recent a development to have established its reliability.

All action of the authorities of the kingdom of Italy stops at the gate of the Vatiean. At the time of Victor Emmanuel's occupation of Rome Pius IX deelared himself opposed to the kingdom's temporal sovereignty and originated the custom of the pope's remaining in that part of the city where he is still absolute ruler. When the pope goes to St. Peter's it is regarded as a part of the Vatican for the time. It is interesting to note in this connection that the Vatiean was not originally intended as a place of residence. Comparatively a small part of it is now residential; the remainder serves the purposes of science, art and the administration of the Catholie church. Of the 1,000 rooms in the great palace, 200 serve as residences for the pope, secretary of state and the other high officials of the church.

Mr. Heory Kneck, Box 870, No. 1118
R. Vista Ave., Jacosville, Wis., writes:
"I wrote you about four weeks ago that I ised a pain in my stomach."
followed your advice, and used three lottles of your Peruna, and I am all right now. I am very thankful for your advice and your medicine."

A Housewife Restored.

A Housewife Restored.

Mrs. R. W. Copelso, Boy 22, Greensboro, Ga., suffered several years with catarrh of the stomach. Size was his such poor health she could not attend to her household duties at all. Peruna was recommended by oeightors. She was induced to begin the use of Peruna, She says: "After taking five bottles of Feruna I am happy to say that I am cottrely cured. My indigestion is entirely gone."

Once a Chronic Invalid.

Mrs. E. Riker, 508 Grant Ave., East Cedar Falls, Iowa, was ones a chronic invalid. Four different doctors had been coosulted without avail. See had taken five different medicines that had been recommended, without improvement. Peruna was tried and the good result was prompt and lasting.

Expresses Her Gratitude.

Mrs. Samuel Ruth, 555 Union Ave., Lebanoo, Fa., is able to say positively that she has been cured by Peruna. Si can scarcely find words to express her gratitude for her recovery. For many years she had been a semi-invalid from chronic catarrh.

Three substantial men, heads of families, made efficient once more by Peruna. Three housewives restored to their families. These are only samples of what Peruna is doing every day, everywhere. Surely, this is a splendid work. Anything that conserves family life and makes the hom more desirable and comfortable, nourishes the heart root of civilization. Peruna is a great civilizer.

Half a Negro.

It is dawning on the negro even that the Kentucky Republicans are a strictly pie-counter crowd and a greedy one, too, that wants the pie for the white Republicans only. That tendency was so strong in the recent Republican state convention at Louisville that the colored brother was not even thought of fairly for the nonsalaried place of delegate-at-large to Chicago. He has always been given one-fourth of the representation, or one full vote. In this convention when there was generosity shown to the whites and it was proposed to send eight delegates, with only half a vote each, Mr. Negro was to get but half n vote, or only half the voting power that he has had heretofore. No wonder that a preacher-delegate said in his protesting speech, "I should rather have no negro than half a negro." Phil Brown, the "half negro" delegate to the Chicago convention of the Republicans, Is now credited to this district, being the publisher of a negro paper at Hopkinsville, but he is an Indiana importation, having formerly lived in Evansville.—Owensborg Messenger.

Old English Lotteries.

On October 18, 1826, the last "state lottery" was drawn in Engiand. From the time of Queen Elizabeth lotteries had been common in this country, and at the close of the eighteenth century they had become established by successive acts of parliament and wero considered by chancellors of the exchequer as perfectly legitimate means of lncressing the revenue. Indeed, at the time they were abolished lotteries were contributing to the state a sum amounting to £300,000 per annum. MONTENEGRIN CITY OF WORTH ipek Would Be Place of Importance But for Its Unfortunate Geographical Situation.

Ipek, tho first Montenegrin city to fall before the invnders, is the most important city acquired by the Black mountain people for their part in tho war of the Balkan leagho against tho Ottomnn empire in 1912, says a primer on war geography given out by the National Geographic society. Situated mnywhere else hut in the world's most troubled peninsula, lpek would havo mado name and riches as a mecca for vacationists; beautiful and varied, its air is fresh and full of mountain tang, and the rich Mediterranesn fruits are grown in its gardens.

For the sportsman lpek could have furnished hunting, fishing and mountain-climbing. For the nerve worn patient it could have given a bracing climate and picturesque solitudes. All of these things would have made it a tempting spot to the plessure-seeking vseationist. As an unfortunate center of unrest, however, where Alcanian, Montenegrin, Turk and Servian kept the pot of trouble boiling year after year under an Ottoman administration that stirred tho embers under the pot when theso showed signs of smoldering, ipek has remained unknown by the world outsido for tho heauties of its placo.

Ipek lies upon the present borders of Montenegro, in the cast toward Serbian l'rithtina. The Mokra Plania riso high behind it to the west, and this range forms the immediate barrier to the invaders from lpek. On neighboring heights is situated a famous monastery, in which the Serbian patriarchs formerly housed, the lpek inonastery, founded by Arehbishop Arsenius in the thirtcenth century. England is now making arrangements to follow Switzerland's exampie. Lectures and classes will deal with conditions of labor and education, also icssons in cookery, household management, account keeping, and office work. There will be a special study of the poor law, labor organization, municipal health work, children's courts, and kindred institutions. The object, it is said, is to prepare for social reconstruction after the war.

Surgeons Use Carbonic Acid. Military surgeons with the German army are taking advantage of the paiastilling and disinfocting properties of earbonic acid in the treatment of wounds by utilizing an effervescent powder which is now being prepared. This is composed of ten parts sodium hicarbonate, aine parts tartaric acid, and nineteen parts sugar. The iagredients are thoroughly mixed and then crushed to about the fineness of granulated sugar. The substance is applied freely to the surface of a wound, the moisture of which causes it to effervesco and liberate carbonic acid.-Popular Mechanics.

Dr. Zueblin Would Have Government Physician Welcome All New Comers.

Milwaukee, March 13.-"The day is coming when we shall want to use the scientific knowledge we are acquiring, so that every child coming into the world will have at birth the presence of a government physician to see that it is guaranteed life," declared Dr. Charles Zueblin, of Boston, in a lecture at the library under the auspices of the Milwaukee Maternity

"The mother may have as many private physicians and as many other people as are within the command of her pocketbook, but the government will guarantee a decent entrance into th world. That is a perfectly legitimate requisite on the basis of the scientific knowledge we have. Does that seem Utopian?
